CLAIM SUFFRAGE LEADER USED INSULTING LANGUAGE

CONDUCT OF DR. ANNA SHAW IS SCORED BY WOMEN OPPOSED TO SUFFRAGE.

(Special to the Bonanza.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 16.—

"No member or representative of the National Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage will ever again debate or discuss in any way the suffrage question with Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, the leader of the suffragists. The women who are opposed to votes for women realize that Dr. Shaw has reached a state of mind which prompts her to make wild statements and employ insulting language which no woman should endure."

This is the opening paragraph of a statement issued here this afternoon from the Washington headquarters of the national association.

"Mrs. A. J. George of Boston, perhaps the most brilliant woman on the platform of the country today," continues the official statement, "was invited recently to meet Dr. Shaw in a joint debate in Toledo, Ohio. Acting under instructions from the officers of the national association, Mrs. George has wired a refusal."

"The national officers reached their decision in regard to Dr. Shaw when she made the following statement before the senate committee on woman suffrage in a public hearing a few weeks ago:

"We do not fear that little band of professional anti-women going around the country advocating home, heaven and mother. The only purpose they serve is that by holding out their skirts they act as a screen for the liquor traffic, the gamblers, the vicious, and those interested in dance halls and places where young girls are ruined."

The officials of the National Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage declare that they will never permit any of their women to be subjected again to such insults, and that they will not afford Dr. Shaw any opportunity on their part for her to repeat such a statement. These women are noted throughout the country not only on account of their work against suffrage, but because of the wonderful things they have done in charitable, philanthropic and municipal work. Their fight, naturally, is against vice every day, vice in its forms.

"Dr. Shaw realized fully the high standing and upright characters of the women whom she assailed, and she did not produce the slightest semblance of evidence to uphold any of this abuse. The national association concludes, therefore, that Dr. Shaw is absolutely irresponsible when on the platform and is, consequently, a negligible factor in the real woman's movement. Most especially, owing to her growing lack of self control, she can not be expected to observe the courtesies and amenities of public discussion. The anti-suffragists welcome all dignified debate or discussion, but they will not meet any person who descends to the level of vilification and malicious misstatements."
